This Sunday Inauguration Of Trainor And Miller Slated For Parent's Day Ceremonies

Parents' Day this Sunday will feature the annual inspection of the campus by parents, alumni and friends of the College, as well as a mock Student Council meeting and the inauguration of the newly elected presidents of the Student Council and Athletic Association. Festivities begin at 2:30 p.m. with Student Councilors guiding visitors touring Evergreen.

An informal reception will be held on the lawn in the rear of the Faculty Residence at 3:30, with the Reception Committee composed of the Faculty and Student Council, as well as a ten member group of sub-debutantes chairmanned by Georgia McCampbell Perkins. At 4:15 the formal reception by the Very Rev. Francis X. Talbot, S.J., and members of the Faculty will be held in the Alumni Gymnasium.

Glee Club To Sing

The program next includes an address of welcome by the Rev. Matthew G. Sullivan, S.J., followed by the model Council meeting and induction of next year's student leaders. The President will then address the parents and friends.

The Glee Club will present a medley of favorites, under the direction of Felice S. Iula. Solemn Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament will be offered on the west porch of the Faculty Residence to close the day's festivities.

Exhibitions Planned

Exhibitions planned during the tour of the campus include one in the Library of THE GREYHOUND publications of the past twenty-three years. Others are a lacrosse game between members of the varsity and a physics department lecture on "Atomic Energy" delivered by James H. Dietz. The biology and chemistry departments will also be open to the public. Inspection tours will be conducted to show the progress of the Chapel construction.

Serving on the reception committee will be the Miss Mary Louise Carey, Deborah Dixon Dorsey, Anne Seldon James, Eslie W. Kemp, Eleanor Conway MacLean, Sidney Anne Peard, Betsy Seller, Jane Sowell and Dorothy Barry Wolff, as well as Miss Perkins.

Moonlight Cruise Planned June 9

A Loyola-bound S.S. Tolchester will depart from Pier 16, foot of Light Street, on June 9 for the third annual moonlight cruise. Sponsored by the Freshman and Sophomore classes, the outing will make the round trip to Seven Foot Knoll in the Chesapeake Bay and return.

Students, alumni and their friends are invited to join the crowd. Passage will be one dollar. There will be dancing on the Tolchester, and beer will be served.

Tickets are available from Richard Wojtek, James Garland, Nell Bathon, Richard Cadigan and other members of the committee, as well as from the Campus Shop.

The committee has been promised a minimum of interference from the operators of the line. "It's the chance to relax after exams with your Loyola friends," says Garland.

Francis X. Trainor

Francis X. Trainor and Edward Miller will be inaugurated as president of the Student Council and president of the Athletic Association, respectively, at this Sunday's Parents' Day ceremonies. The two were elected in balloting held on Thursday, May 4.

Their winning of the election was announced at the Council meeting held on the afternoon of election day. The new officials will be introduced to the student body tonight at the Queen's Ball.

Trainor Vote Heavy

Trainor won by a more than one hundred votes over his nearest opponent, Thomas Oaster. Trainor received 298 votes, or nearly one-half of the 613 total. Oaster garnered 121; Joseph Paskin, 67; Eugene Conroy, 66; Eugene Corigan, 44 and Royce Upton, 17.

In the Athletic Association balloting, Miller polled 333 votes, with his only opponent, Herbert Melnert, trailing by 75. This year's election marked the first appearance of candidates from cities other than Baltimore; Melnert is from Ambler, Pennsylvania; and Corrigan is from Isle of Palms, South Carolina.

Campaign Conservative

Contrary of past years, the campaigning of the different candidates was conservative. Trainor featured endorsements by photogenic supporters of pre-voting age. Miller paired his chums with Oaster and promised an athletic schedule sign on the border of the athletic field.

Miller also advocated an annual Homecoming Day in the spring and expansion of the athletic field. He has been a member of the swimming and lacrosse teams and the Block 'L' Club. He is an alumnus of Loyola High School.

Trainor promised "greater concentration of student effort, better organization of student activity. No issue will be avoided." He is the oldest of all candidates, 26, and a graduate of Baltimore City College.

Fair Elected: The Queen's Court

ATTENDANTS AT THE THRONE of Our Lady of Evergreen at tonight's Queen's Ball are Miss Eunice Lou Armacost, Mrs. Edward Doran, Miss Anne Rogers and Miss Constance Roycroft.

Baton Taps At Nine To Begin Queen's Ball

The annual Queen's Ball will be held tonight in the cabaret-styled Evergreen Gymnasium from nine until one under the auspices of the Junior Sodality. Music for the occasion will be supplied by Bill Maisel and his orchestra.

The Court of Honor was selected by members of the Hoyas staff of Georgetown University from more than 25 entries. Chosen for the court are Miss Ann Rogers, Miss Eunice Lou Armacost, Miss Constance Roycroft and Mrs. Lois Dowell Dorian.

Is NDM Grad

Miss Rogers, who will be escorted by Robert P. Murphy, of the class of '52, is a graduate of the Notre Dame Preparatory School, and at present is a member of the freshman class at Mt. St. Agnes College. She is a resident of the Ten Hills section of Baltimore and a member of St. William's Parish.

Miss Armacost is also a graduate of Notre Dame Preparatory School and a freshman at Mt. St. Agnes College. She is training to act as a medical secretary. A resident of the Liberty Heights section of the city and a member of the All Saints' Parish, Miss Armacost will be escorted by William Volek, a member of the class of '52.

Was Oratory Winner

Miss Roycroft, who will be escorted by G. Edward Reahl, a freshman at Loyola, is a senior at Trinity Prep and the recent winner of the CYO Oratorical Contest. She is a resident of Catonsville, Baltimore County, and a member of St. Mark's Parish.

Mrs. Dorian will be escorted by her husband, Edward Dorian, a member of the class of '53. Mr. and Mrs. Dorian are natives of Rhode Island and are now residing with their baby son in the Waverly section of the city.

Alpha Sigma Nu Inducts Two Seniors, Three Juniors

Induction of five upper-classmen into Alpha Sigma Nu, honorary Jesuit college fraternity, was announced at the Student Council meeting of May 4. Juniors Francis X. Trainor and Edward Lemkuhler and seniors Joseph Coyne, Eunice Blanco and Emerson Clarke have been accepted by the national organization.

'Greyhound' Gets Award

THE GREYHOUND has received notification of award of its fifth consecutive All American rating from the Associated Collegiate Press. The paper scored 940 points out of a possible 1055.

Awards are made semi-annually to member papers after judgement by instructors of the journalism department, University of Minnesota. All American is the top designation.

Trainor is the newly elected student president and prefect of the Senior Sodality. Lemkuhler is president of the Junior class and guided planning for its recent prom.

Council Closes 1950 Session

A Student Council constitutional amendment and the appointment of a committee to study the problems unsolved by the Council during the year comprised the main business of the final Council meeting. The retiring president, Emilio Blanco, thanked the group for their cooperation, and in turn was extended a vote of congratulations for his work. Newly elected Council and Athletic Association presidents were introduced.

The constitutional amendment provided for a standard of acceptance for candidates for the offices of Student and Athletic Association presidents. The move, introduced by Eugene Corrigan, aimed at setting up a scale by which the Dean could measure applications for such candidacy as had been requested in the past by the administration.

Must Meet Class Average

The motion passed, providing that future candidates must have averages at least equal to that of their section and must have participated in at least one extra-curricular activity. Appeal can be made from rejection on these grounds to the Student Council, which will decide whether to forward such cases to the Dean for consideration.

Richard Cadigan moved for the formation of a committee to investigate various matters which the Council was unable to accomplish. Cadigan succeeded in obtaining the committee, which will submit its report to next year's Council.

Committee Considerations

The committee will investigate the abandonment of the cut system, the use of stable textbook lists, an increase of parking facilities, elimination of parking fines, repairing of the recreation room and legalizing of card-playing on campus.

Other matters considered at the meetings were a yearbook appeal for more funds to publish a Spring supplement and announcement that the Earl Schmidt memorial medal is being designed.

Something New

Something new has been added to the Loyola Campus Shop. The book store now features a cleaning service—in by 10:30 a.m., out by 3:00 p.m.

The new service has been instituted with the co-operation of Southern Tailors, located on the York Road in the Govans town section.

Caesar Serves With Patience

Near the middle stairway in the hall of the Library Building there stands a man who has for years exercised a mighty patience as Loyola students have overloaded him with coats, hats, cigarettes and ties.

The Society for the Protection of Sticky Tongues, Inc. (Circulation Staff of THE GREYHOUND) have threatened to put a stamp on him and send him to Siberia. But Augustus Caesar, the mighty Roman emperor, has silently overlooked these insults.

Yes, Gus, triumphant politically over the Romans, has truly been massacred physically by the army of Loyola students. Can any of you readers realize what pitiful feelings Gus would have had as he stood on the steps of the Forum, stretching out his arm so that it might be loaded with green, grey, brown and red coats?

Imagine him raising his majestic head only to be burdened by felt, straw, top and skull hats; or opening his pleading hands so they might be filled with Luckies, Old Golds, Chesterfields and Cavaliers.

Clean Up Drive

Loyola has started a cleanup campaign, coinciding with Baltimore City's "Clean up, paint up, fix up" drive. The Rev. Robert P. Arthur, S.J., dean of men, has appealed for the co-operation of the student body to keep the campus and cafeteria free from litter. Trash cans have been placed in convenient places around the grounds and hallways.

James Dietz Wins Second Gold Medal

The negative team of Edward O. Clarke, Jr., and James H. Dietz was declared winner of the annual Jenkins Prize Debate, held recently at the Knights of Columbus hall in Overlea, defeating veteran debaters Bertram Morales and Joseph Blair.

Dietz, selected as the best debater, will be awarded the Jenkins Gold Medal for Debate, founded by Austin Jenkins. Previously, the twenty-three-year-old physics major was adjudged winner of the Lee Gold Medal for Oratory.

National collegiate debate topic, the nationalization of the basic non-agricultural industries, was used by the speakers. The four men who participated in this contest represented Loyola at the Tau Kappa Alpha national convention in Kentucky, where they placed among the top ten.

Cosmopolites Set Dance For Next Friday Night

The Cosmopolitan Club will hold its third in a series of record dances next Friday evening at eight-thirty in the Oak Room of the Library Building. Eugene Corrigan, president of the club and committee chairman, has announced that hoarders from Mount Saint Agnes have been invited.

The affair is open to the entire student body at a price of 25 cents.

Five Campus Groups Hold Elections, Discuss Plans

• Mask and Rapier Society

Gerald Uhlhorn was elected president of the Mask and Rapier Dramatic Society at a meeting held on Friday, April 28. Uhlhorn won the election by a margin of three votes over Edwin Watson. Third nominee for the presidency was William Volenick.

When nominations for vice-president were opened, Watson and Volenick were again named, together with Kenneth Grimm and Daniel MacKey. Watson won with thirteen votes cast in his favor.

Secretarial nominees were Lawrence Rodowski, John Kelleher, MacKey and Volenick. Volenick was elected, succeeding Kenneth Grimm.

Norman Karolenko was re-elected treasurer by unanimous vote. Joseph Sills and Howard France, retiring president and vice-president, respectively, declined to run for office.

Voting, by written ballot, was supervised by Student Council members George Strohecker and Edward Pula.

• Classics Academy

The Classics Academy, newly reactivated by Moderators Dr. Edward Kaltenback and Dr. John V.

Walsh, held elections recently, naming Lawrence Rodowsky as president and Leroy Wagner as vice-president.

Rodowsky, a sophomore, has been active in the work of the National Students' Association, of which he is Loyola's Junior delegate. The new president will represent the Academy on the Student Council.

• History Academy

John Seal was elected president of the History Academy at elections of that organization held recently. Malcolm Rose and Richard Wojtek were elected vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

On Thursday, May 4, the academy held its annual banquet at the Park Plaza. Guest speaker for the occasion was Mr. John A. Carpenter, instructor at Mt. Vernon Junior College, Washington.

Topic of Mr. Carpenter's speech was "General Oliver O. Howard, leader of the Freedman's Bureau." Mr. Carpenter has been conducting intensive research on General Howard's life in preparation for his Doctor's thesis at Columbia University.

Next meeting of the historians will be held on May 18 at the home of John Hull, retiring president. Plans for next year will be formulated at this meeting.

• Senior Sodality

Eugene Conroy was elected prefect of the Senior Sodality at elections held last Sunday morning. Conroy, a Sodalist for seven years, succeeds Francis X. Tralnor, newly elected president of the Student Council.

Francis Hubbard, copy editor of the Evergreen Annual, was elected vice-prefect. Other officers elected were George Fitzpatrick, secretary, and Jerome Muth, treasurer. Fitzpatrick, in addition to his work with the Sodality, will act as Alumni circulation manager of THE GREYHOUND.

Next August, Conroy and Hubbard will attend the Summer School of Catholic Action at Fordham University in New York. This school, which is sponsored by the Sodality Union, instructs delegates from Catholic colleges all over the nation on the rules and procedure of Sodality work.

• International Relations Club

The International Relations Club concluded its year's program with a banquet at the House of Welsh on May 1. At elections held after dinner, Joseph Sills was named president, succeeding Peter Stehle.

Also elected were Francis X. Metzbower, vice-president and Robert Freeze, secretary-treasurer. All of the officers are active in other extra-curricular activities. Sills is past president of the Dramatic Society; Metzbower is founder of Loyola's St. John Berchman Society and Freeze plays as varsity defense-man on the Lacrosse team.

Some plans for next year have been disclosed already. Former president Stehle announced that the IRC will send two delegates to the convention of the Middle Atlantic Region to be held at the University of Montreal in Canada sometime in the Fall.

Chapel Progress

GOING UP STEADILY—The walls of Our Lady's Chapel of Evergreen steadily advance skyward. Preparations have begun for the pouring of concrete on the first floor of the structure. ## Sophomore Test Marks Average 52.9 Percent

Loyola sophomores have a percentile rating of 52.9 in comparison with 21,000 other sophomores from 165 colleges and universities according to the results of the Cooperative Test Division of the Educational Testing Service exams which were taken by 216 sophomores on March 23 and 24.

Results which were released last week show that the Loyolans posted a 51.6 mark in the Cooperative English Test. The sophomores had an average of 53.5 in the Cooperative General Culture Test. In the Cooperative Contemporary Affairs Test the result was 53.7.

Ads Job Guidance

The tests were taken over a period of two days. Their purpose was "to serve as an aid in giving vocational counseling," according to Mr. Henry L. Zerhusen, director of the Loyola College Placement Bureau.

The English test was divided into six sections, each graded separately. Highest sectional percentile was 57.0 in Level of Reading. Also separated into six sections was the General Culture test. Highest mark in this section was 55.6 in the Literature section.

Taken In Three Sections

Unlike the other two tests, the Contemporary Affairs exam was taken in only three sections, highest of which was Public Affairs mark of 53.0.

A chart was given to each student to enable him to plot his scores graphically. This will serve as a further indication of individual interests.

News In Brief

A Camp Conference for married students and alumni of Loyola College and their wives will be conducted by the Rev. John J. Scanlan, S.J., on Sunday, May 28, from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m., in Room 101.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Smith, Jr., of Washington, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Joanne, to Paul Edward Hughes, a 1949 graduate of Loyola. Hughes is now an instructor at McDonogh School, while Miss Smith is a student at Notre Dame College.

Miss Peggy Ann Cullis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Cullis, will be married June 10 to John Stuart Galloway. Galloway is a 1949 graduate of Loyola.

Miss Nancy Corinne Cooke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edna Cooke, will be married in the near future to William Harris, a member of the July '50 class. Miss Cooke is a student at the Maryland Institute of Art.

Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Zangara have announced the birth of a son on March 5. Dr. Zangara is a 1939 graduate of Loyola.

Miss Margaret C. Griesacker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Griesacker, was married to Mr. C. Robert Fusting, '40, last Saturday at the Cathedral.

Spring Concert Presented By Glee Club At Alcazar

The Loyola College Glee Club presented its annual Concert on Friday evening, May 5, at the Alcazar. The program was featured by the introduction of the new Loyola hymn, Locly Lady of Evergreen. Words were composed by Adrian Peyton and music by Felice S. Inla, Conductor of the group. Soloists for the evening were Joseph McCall, tenor; Salvatore Battaglia, bass-baritone; the Barbershoppers, and Pianist William Yannuzzi, who also served as accompanist.

The program included: Locly Lady of Evergreen (Peyton and Inla); Brothers Sing On (Grieg); Thanks Be To Thee (Handel); Lift Thine Eyes (Logan); excerpts from Romberg's Student Prince; Desert Song and New Moon, In A Monastic Garden (Ketelbey); De Animals A-Coming and The Gospel Train (Negro Spirituals); The Sword of Ferrara (Bullard) and a medley of famous college songs. McCall Sings "The Gehla Maulin"

McCall chose Puccini's The Gehla Maulin for his selection, while Battaglia sang Sonic Enchanted Evening (Rodgers) and Return To Sorrento (deCurtis). William Yannuzzi played Brahms' Intermezzo Opus 117, Number Two, von Dohnanyi's Rhapsody Number Two and the Second Movement from Beethoven's Fifth Symphony.

The "Barbershoppers," George Bauerischub, Laurence Godey, Jacques Guuning and Bertram Morales, rendered three songs, Coney Island Baby, Fishin' and Tell Me Why.

Queen's Court Announced

After the concert, the Court of Honor for the Queen's Ball was announced.

The Very Reverend Francis X. Talbot, S.J., was introduced and he congratulated the choral group, stating that "It was the best program yet presented."

Alumni Organize Partnership; Spring Dance Temed Success

by John J. Pugh, '43

A letter from Jack Sweeney informs us that he is now associated with Thomas F. Denipsey, who has been a member of the House of Delegates for the past twelve years. Their law office will be located in the Maryland Trust Building. Jack is a Jesuit Product all the way, having received his law degree from Georgetown.

Congratulations are certainly in order for the Spring Dance Committee. For once, there were no complaints at all from those who attended. It will become quite a precedent for other committees to follow.

This will be the last publication of THE GREYHOUND until classes resume in September. In former times this would have meant a cessation of news on the alumnae front. Such is not quite the case now. We have the Newsletter to keep us posted, and our files of addresses are more up-to-date than they have ever been.

Pre-Cana Talks End On Sunday

The Rev. John J. Scanlan, S.J., instructor in ethics at Loyola, will deliver the third and final talk in a series of Pre-Cana Conferences this Sunday evening from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in Room 101 of the Library building under the auspices of the Junior and Senior Societies.

Two previous talks have been held, on April 30 and May 7. All the conferences have been on the subject of Christian marriage and courtship.

For Engaged Couples

The series of talks have been for engaged couples and couples seriously contemplating marriage among Loyola College students and alumni.

Approximately 50 persons were present at each of the first two conferences.

Attendance Gratifying

"We are very pleased by the attendance at the first two conferences," commented Fr. Scanlan. "It has been approximately twice as large as we expected."

Dr. Rollis Hanton, M.D., '34, and his wife, who is also a Doctor of Medicine, were guest speakers at the conference.

Physics Group Plans Picnic And Trips Next Term

Loyola's physics majors will hold a picnic after the final examinations. It was announced by Mr. Donald M. Slager, of the Physics Department. A picnic committee is now considering a suitable place.

Seniors taking the spectroscopy course during the Spring Term will also visit various laboratories in the Baltimore area.

The Critic

by Malcolm S. Rose

With but a few saving graces, Cheaper By The Dozen just manages to be passable entertainment. Even the most casual onlooker is immediately aware of Twentieth Century Fox's superb job of miscasting, which should merit some sort of reverse Oscar.

Clifton Webb, rather than have attempted a part too mundane for him, should have "stood in bed." Hollywood's chief exponent of artificiality, Myrna Loy, continually reminds one of a Gopher graduate trying to impress the Vagabonds with her "arty" mannerisms.

Based on the non-fiction book by Gilbreth and Carey on the large benefits and minor woes of a 14-member family, the potential "great" falls almost flatly. Only certain workmanlike performances by the juveniles and Edgar Brehawn's excellent portrayal of a New Jersey doctor keep this flicker from falling well below 65.

Edward Arnold stars weekly on a most worthy radio program, "Mr. President" (Sundays, 2:30, WFR). Not only avid history majors but nearly everybody can be highly entertained by this far from dry series of little-known events in the lives of our Chief Executives.

Cleverly concealing the identity of the name until the end, Mr. Arnold assumes the role of whichever proxy is selected for that week. Even close followers of American history find it tricky to discover who it is.

Such a one was confronted by a psychotic assassin, word distantly by a widow, and stymied by a hostile Congress, before the listener knew it to be Andy Jackson.

Forty million dollars or bust is the theme of "Champagne for Caesar," a frolic-filled lampoon of radio giveaways. For a welcome change, Ronald Colman doesn't try to be the perpetual tragedian, and he comes through with a refreshing performance of a Hunsford L. Ferriss type of surlid, crudite, human, and realistic, who keeps upping the ante on Art Linkletter's quiz show to the above-quoted figure.

Mel Blane's voice, as channeled through an alcoholically-inclined parrot takes close second honors. Celeste Holm's job of a femme fatale who succumbs to Cupid's curve balls is a riot, to put it conservatively.

What Fate?

Last week the last faint ray of hope was extinguished in hundreds of thousands of German homes when the Kremlin peremptorily announced that the repatriation of German war prisoners from the Soviet Union had been completed. According to official Red Army figures released just after the war, over 3.5 million Wehrmacht, Luftwaffe, and SS personnel were being held behind the Iron Curtain. In the last five years two million have been sent home. That leaves 1.5 million unaccounted for—perhaps forever.

We can speculate as to the fate of these poor unfortunate, but we cannot be sure. In a country such as Russia almost anything could have befallen them. The prisoners may be slaves in the uranium mines behind the Urals; they may be dead; they may be hostages, to be used by the Russians at a later date to coerce the Germans into accepting Red domination; or they may be part of that new German army which the Soviets are known to be training deep inside Russia.

This much, however, is certain: their disappearance will fan the growing antipathy for Communism in Germany and greatly enhance the political position of the West in that enlightened country, for the Germans have not forgotten that the Allies repatriated all prisoners within a few months after the end of the war.

Year's End

Another school year has come and gone, and we may now look back and evaluate 1949-50. Everything considered, it has been a good year. Although fewer students were enrolled in September than at any time since the beginning of the postwar rush, there was no apparent decrease in student leadership. The Dean's List continued to number between ten and fifteen percent of the student body.

Despite the losses suffered by extracurricular groups in last year's graduation, these clubs were very active this year, making full use of the influx of underclassmen talent. Even before the recent elections many of the offices in these clubs were held by competent, energetic freshmen and sophomores. In addition, underclassmen interest led to the re-establishment of several campus activities which had been non-existent for a number of years.

As things stand now, 1950-51 ought to be no good or better.

From the Library

Are you troubled with words? Do you agonize for the flawless phrase? Have you perchance in term-paper time pursued through sleepless nights the exact expression to round a graceful paragraph? Is punctuation a puzzle? Do you take up the dictionary only to find it lets you down? Are you sometimes torn with hesitation between shall and will, like and as, was and were, or and nor? Tantalized by the caprice of an illom horn of history and not of logic?

This is the least common and most profitable form of worry. If you are its fortunate victim, H. W. Fowler has written the book for you. If, rather, you think words don't matter, your words never will. Dryden

Drive Safely

During the last year and a half we at Loyola have mourned the untimely deaths of three of our classmates in highway accidents. Two were outstanding athletes; all were intelligent, personable, and apparently destined for happy, useful lives in the community.

Some would say they died for nothing. We disagree. What happens happens only because God allows it, and what God allows is not without purpose. Most of us—if only we'll admit it—are far from the best drivers. The supercilious we used as beginners is soon diluted with the overconfidence of fortunate experience as handling a car becomes "second nature." We daily fail to obey the traffic laws established for our own safety. We are seemingly indifferent to what could happen as a result of our negligence.

We are likewise impervious to figures showing the terrible toll that highway accidents take each year. Statistics seem cold and far removed from us or from those we love. As with so many other truths not readily apparent, we sometimes have to be shocked into acceptance of the need for highway caution.

Let us always keep this axiom in mind while behind the wheel: A good driver is a cautious driver, a considerate driver, a humble driver. By so doing we shall help reduce the staggering number of deaths and injuries on American highways each year.

Another Depression In Music Predicted

by Larry Davis

In this the last column under this by-line, your writer would like to express his opinion on the future state of the popular-music field. The following quotes from a recent issue of Down Beat magazine indicate the coming trend.

Woody Herman—"You've got to satisfy the people. You can't play dance music at a concert or concert music at a dance."

George Shearing—"If I don't see that people are digging us, I'm a very unhappy guy . . . The only thing that can do anything bad for bop is the word itself."

Orrin Tucker—"The movies have been spending all that money and making their product for a 10- or 12-year-old mentality, but most dance bands are just starting to catch on. They didn't want to stop so low. I've been that low for a long time."

It should be apparent from the above quotations that musicians from every category—hot jazz bands, combos, and sweet dance bands—are beginning to feel the need of earning a living instead of satisfying their desire to create new music.

Such a reaction occurred in the early '30's, when the bands of Guy Lombardo, Vincent Lopez and Eddie Duchin, with their sweet hotel stylings, replaced the gutty Dixieland of Louis Armstrong, Red Nichols, and Jack Teagarden. It wasn't until '36 that creative music returned with Benny Goodman and his new-found "swing." Just how long this coming dearth of uninspired music will continue, your writer cannot guess, but he fervently hopes that it will not last too long.

One difference in the present situation that was not in the early '30's decline is Stan Kenton. His experiments in music are still making money. How long he can continue to fly in the face of present public taste is an interesting question.

There is an old saying that "All good things must come to an end," and so it did when yours truly's predecessor, Bob Bourbou, wrote his final column for THE GREYHOUND. Bob will always be remembered for his artlessness and loquaciousness (cf. Bourbon) in the use of the King's English, as well as for his witticisms. However, this paper's loss will be the gain of someone else. But if you wish to tag along, I would like to take you Running With The Hounds till May of next year rolls around.

Basketball Players Receive Offers

Unknowingly, professional basketball scouts had their eyes on the Evergreen campus during the past basketball season. This fact came to light recently when the fact was made known that all the seniors on the '49-'50 edition of the Greyhound basketball squad had received offers to play pro ball for the Sheboygan team of the National League. Those receiving the bids were Captain Mike Zedalis, Bob Amlerson, Bill Johnson, Walt Sibiski and Frank Barrett.

At the same time it was learned that the Baltimore Bullets of the National Basketball Association had received draft rights to Zedalis; a rival N. B. A. team, Tri-Cities, had drafted Bob Anderson. As most people know, the Bullets employed the services and skills of ex-Loyolan Andy O'Donnell during the last half of the recent basketball wars among the boys who play for pay.

Loyola Awarded Tournament

With tournament-time now in the air, word has come from the United States Lawn Tennis Association that the College has been granted a charter to sponsor the Loyola Interscholastic Invitation Tournament. Action in this tourney is scheduled for the Evergreen courts on May 17, 18, 19 and 20. The association also awarded to Loyola the second annual Maryland Intercollegiate Tennis Championships to be held May 25, 26 and 27.

Jerry Laroque, who has been the Greyhounds' number one tennis player for the last two years and has captained the squad a like number of years, is the defending State Collegiate Champ, and as a result will be seeded number one in the fight for the championship cup which is now resting in Loyola's trophy case. Incidentally, Laroque has lost but three single matches in his four seasons of collegiate competition, and is regarded throughout the city of Baltimore as an up-and-coming tennis performer. Tennis-Baltimore discovered this fact as a result of Jerry's play in the various tournaments held during the summer of '49.

Cronin Seeks Third Crown

In the golf world, one finds that Jack Cronin, who besides being the number one man on the Green and Grey golf squad is also the team's coach, manager, etc., will be out after his third consecutive Mason-Dixon Golf Crown when the Conference holds its tournament on Monday, May 15. If Jack comes through with another win, it will be the first time in the history of the M-D that such a feat has been accomplished.

Cronin will be trying for another repeat performance on May 20 when the golfers take part in the Western Maryland College Invitational. For it was last year that Cronin came away from Westminster wearing the tournament crown. And then there is the Maryland intercollegiate which went to Jack back in '48 and in which he was runner-up in '49.

Zedalis To Miller

Congratulations from THE GREYHOUND Sports Department are in store for Eddie Miller, the newly elected President of the Athletic Association. Eddie, who at present is occupying his time by holding down a starting berth on the Hounds lacrosse team, and who, when winter shows its face, swims the 200-yard breaststroke for the College's swim team, will replace Mike Zedalis as overlord of the school's athletes.

Among the several things planned by Miller when he takes over the job of Prexy of the A. A. is the initiation of an annual Homecoming Day. This without a doubt would be one of the biggest boost of Loyola spirit that has yet to hit the campus. It would once again be a means of bringing together the alumni and the students, such as the evening of the last Alumni-Varsity basketball game did. In this scribe's opinion, it is a definite need and a wonderful idea. Good luck, Ed!

Track Tourney To Open Today

The highlight of the college track season takes place today and tomorrow as the annual Mason-Dixon track championship gets underway.

Washington College reigns a top-heavy favorite to snare the plaudits for the second consecutive year. The Shoremen have potential winners in almost every event. Hopkins, the only team that came anywhere close to Washington last year, is not entered in this year's event.

Bridgewater Second Choice

In the opinion of Coach McElroy, Bridgewater and Roanoke should grab the No. 2 and 3 positions. Fourth place will be a wide open battle between Loyola, Catholic University and Randolph-Macon.

Mr. McElroy also feels that if the event is favored with a dry field, many previous M-D track marks will be shattered in every event from the 100-yard sprint to the two mile run.

Personal Duel

One of the top features of the day will be the personal duel between Washington College's Joe Howard and American University's Tim Ferguson in the 100-yard dash. Both of these boys were undefeated during the regular season, since their respective schools did not meet during the year.

Though Howard will be a slight favorite, Ferguson gave ample proof of his ability against Loyola last Saturday afternoon. The speedy youth was clocked at 10.2 on a track that was ankle-deep with mud.

Loyola's Chances

Loyola hopes will rest primarily on the shoulders of George Brown and Tom Volatile in the 2-mile event. George and Tom have been making the distance in good time the past few weeks. If either one of them should have a good day, they could bring home the bacon."

The hurdles will also be a wide open event with either Walt Smyth and Tom Maskell of Loyola, Bill Acton of Randolph-Macon, Ted Sydnor of Lynchburg and Jim Rushbrook of American University capable of taking honors.

Courtmen Win From Hopkins

Loyola's tennis squad bounded back into first place in the northern division of the M-D Tennis Conference by beating Johns Hopkins, 7 to 2, on the Evergreen courts.

The win for the Greyhounds also evens a score they had to settle with the Blue Jays, for it was Hopkins who administered an upset defeat on the Hounds in an earlier match.

Loyola captured four of the six singles matches and then went on to win all three doubles events.

SINGLES

Laroque, Loyola, defeated Schleifer, 6-1, 6-1.

Darrell, Loyola, defeated Ely, 6-3, 7-5.

Ward, Loyola, defeated Blaustein, 6-2, 6-7.

Thomas, Hopkins, defeated Darrell, 7-5, 6-2.

Flickinger, Hopkins, defeated Date-man, 10-8, 4-6, 6-1.

McDermott, Loyola, defeated Baldwin, 6-1, 6-1.

DOUBLES

Laroque and Ward, Loyola, defeated Schleifer and Ely, 6-2, 6-4.

Greyhounds Take W &amp; L By 8-6 At Lexington, Va.

HoundNetters In 3 Triumphs

With Attackmen Frank Kimmel and Jim Whelan showing the way, Loyola's lacrosse team surged back from a one-goal first-quarter deficit to upset strong Washington and Lee University, 8 to 6, at Lexington, Va., last Saturday afternoon.

Each of the Greyhounds' ace close-in men tallied three goals apiece as the Green and Grey racked up its third win of the season. Loyola's record now stands at three victories and three losses.

Score Tie At Halftime

Coach Bish Baker's attackmen trailed at the end of the first session, 2 to 1, but managed to even the count at 2 to 2 by halftime. A five-goal spurge by the visitors in the third frame then established an advantage which in itself was enough to desword the "little generals."

Washington and Lee outscored Loyola in the final 15 minutes of play, but an alert Hound defense successfully stymied the host team's efforts to get back into the game.

Goaltending Par Excellence

The Generals' fine goalie, Bill Clements, who was named second-team All-American last year, had an excellent day in the nets, thwarting 22 scoring thrusts. Skip Barry of Loyola turned back 13 shots to register another of the stellar performances to which Greyhound fans have become accustomed.

The Wagner brothers, Tom and Charlie, were responsible for a goal apiece in their team's winning cause.

Loyola	1 1 5 1—8
W. and Lee	2 0 1 3—6

Scoring: Loyola—Kimmel (3), Whelan (3), T. Wagner, C. Wagner, Washington and Lee—McDonald (2), Ryer (2), Tongue, Gray.

Loyola Wins Three

Loyola's varsity baseball, tennis and golf squads made a clean sweep of it Tuesday afternoon against competition from Baltimore University. The ball nine defeated the Bees by a 12-to-4 count, and in so doing clinched the northern division of the M-D Baseball League. The net team scored a 9-to-0 victory, and the golfers topped the B. U. boys, 8-to-1.

Golf Squad Splits Even In Four Recent Outings

Although they scored lopsided wins over Mount Saint Mary's and La Salle College of Philadelphia, the Greyhounds suffered their only golf defeats of the season at the hands of Villanova and the University of Maryland. The golfers remain undefeated in M-D play.

The season's first defeat was to the Villanova Wildcats by a 5-to-4 score. Loyola won three individual matches, halved one and lost two, but came out on the short end of the best-ball matches. Jack Cronin, Bill Cooney and Jack Winterson won their match, while Jim Pelisek managed to halve his man.

Wellman Is Medalist

The rounds of golf were played at the Chester Valley Country Club course, located near Philadelphia. Don Weitman, of Villanova, was medalist with a 72. Cronin posted a 73 for Loyola.

It was the same story the next day at the Fort Meade Golf Course as the Hounds bowed to the University of Maryland by the same 5-to-4 score. Jack Stumanski, Bill Gross and Cooney were the Greyhounds' winners. Again the match was lost on the best-ball points.

Pelisek First Loss

In this match, Pelisek lost his only match in two years of college competition when he lost 5 and 4 to Dick Sturges of Maryland. Both of the above matches were played without the service of Mel Beeler, who was recently married.

The Green and Grey divot-diggers got back into the win column in a big way by shutting out the Mountaineers of Mt. St. Mary's, 9 to 0. In their next match the Hounds took the measure of the Explorers of La Salle by an 8½-to-½ count. Pelisek was medalist in the St. Mary's match, and Cronin turned the trick in the La Salle event.

B-Golfers Face Jays

Today at 2 p. m. Loyola's B-squad golf team will tee off against Johns Hopkins' freshman team. The match is to be played at Mount Pleasant, home course of both teams.

The Blue Jays are undefeated in five starts against local high school competition, but should be in for a busy afternoon, for the Greyhounds boast a capable team paced by freshman Bill Gross. Gross holds down the squad's number one post.

Jack Winterson and Jim Metz, bower will play in the number two and three spot for the Green and Grey. These three players have played in a few varsity matches without losing a point.

The last three positions are to be filled by freshmen Frank McCoy, Vernon Steedman and Bunk Finegan.

This is the only match scheduled for the B-squad, but it should serve as a chance for the members of next year's varsity to gain valuable experience.

Maskell, Linardi Vital Cogs In Track, Baseball Machines

It is a known fact that a team which wins consistently is composed not only of individual stars, but also of players who are willing, reliable and co-operative players like these are the vital cogs which make a team a winning machine. Loyola can boast of two such personages in Tom Maskell and Frank "Pooch" Linardi.

Tom is a three year veteran of Loyola's track and swimming teams. He began his track career while a student at City College, having run the 440 and high and low hurdles for the Alameda trackmen. He was also a member of City's championship swimming team and played soccer in his senior year.

Tom Is A Senior

The easy going senior entered Loyola in the fall of '47 and continued his track and tank feats for the Greyhounds. In his freshman year Tom landed berths on track team, running the 440, and with the swimming team, holding down the backstroke department.

Frank Linardi, the other member of this duo, is now completing his third year of varsity baseball for the Greyhound nine. Pooch cultivated his interest in the national pastime while attending Mt. St. Joe.

Married In January

After graduating from the Irvington school, Frank enrolled at Loyola. He attended class for only a few months when Uncle Sam beckoned. As a member of the combat engineers, he saw action throughout Europe, participating in such campaigns as the Battle of the Bulge and the crossing of the Rhine. He was stationed in Germany.

Pooch returned to Loyola after his discharge in 1947 and in the spring of that year became a member of the baseball team. His hard work, determination and popularity were rewarded when he was made captain of the Evergreen nine.

Wedding bells rang for Pooch this January, having married the former Teresa Bateman, a Baltimore girl.

Cavalier Ten Wins Game

Scoring seven goals in the second quarter, the Cavaliers of the University of Virginia handed Loyola its third lacrosse defeat of the season at Evergreen on April 28. The final tally was 12 to 4.

Billy Hooper and Dick Godine led the assault on the Greyhounds' goal as each came up with a trio of goals. Loyola's four scores were registered by Frank Kimmel, Tommy Wagner, Bob Bradley and Tom Oaster.

Virginia Takes Lead

Hooper started the day's scoring early in the initial period when he came from behind the cage and scored from the right. Wagner tied the count a few minutes later as he netted the ball after taking a feed from Eddie Miller.

The Cavaliers went out in front to stay when Hooper repeated his first scoring play. The count remained 2 to 1 as the first period ended.

Godine Leads Rally

With Ganting setting the pace, the Virginians iced the game away in the second quarter scoring seven times to the Hounds' nought. A combination of goals by Godine, Carroll Boone, Gordon Jones, Hooper and Tom Compton, all of whom are Baltimoreans, gave the visitors a 9-to-1 halftime advantage.

The win was the fifth for Virginia. They had lost but two.

The summaries:

Track Team Scores Fourth Win As Tommies And Eagles Fall

The Greyhound track squad scored its fourth win of the season last Saturday afternoon when it knocked over the Eagles of American University by a 67-to-50 count.

The previous Saturday, the thin-clads traveled to Scranton, Pennsylvania for a triangular meet with Scranton University and Triple City College. Once again, the Hounds came out the victors, scoring 87½ points to Triple City's 45 and Scranton's 31½.

On April 25, the runners dropped their third meet of the year bawling to the Jays of Johns Hopkins University, 49 to 68.

The meet was close most of the way, though, as the Greyhounds managed to score on seconds and thirds. It was the last few events that told the final story.

Krizean Wins Javelin

In the A. U. meet, the Loyolans were led in the scoring column by Captain Walt Smyth, Tom Muskell and Tom Volatile. The latter captured firsts in the mile and two mille runs.

Two new events for Loyola were taken by Green and Grey performers in the triangular meet. First, Steve Krizean, throwing the javelin for the first time this year, captured that event, and then the College's mille-relay team won its race.

Four Spring Sports Nearing End Of Season; Baseball, Tennis, Golf Aim For M-D Crowns

Baseball

On the baseball front, we find that the Hounds have only one league test remaining. On May 16, Loyola will encounter a tough Catholic U. nine at Washington. In an earlier outing, the Cardinals forced the Greyhounds into 11 innings before the Green and Grey coppered a close 4-to-3 decision.

The Evergreen nine will also play La Salle on a home-and-home basis. This afternoon Loyola journeys to Philadelphia for the rest of these clashes. The Explorers will repay the Greyhounds' visit next week. The only other remaining contest is to be with Villanova's Wildcats at Evergreen.

Golf

The golf team will be in a vengeful mood next Sunday when they participate in the annual Mason-Dixon Tournament. Last year the golfers were nudged out of the top position by an unmattered Hopkins team. Determined not to let this happen again, the Hounds are pointing for this one.

May 18 will find the golf squad playing a highly regarded George-

by Joe Steffens

town University outfit. The Hoyas boast a veteran squad and will offer stiff competition for the Green and Grey.

The Greyhounds will also enter the Western Maryland Invitation Tournament at Westminster tomorrow afternoon, and Baltimore University will afford the opposition for the crossmen in their season finale here at Evergreen.

Tennis

Four more matches remain on the tennis schedule, two of which will go a long way in deciding whether or not the Hounds partake in the M-D playoff on May 20.

This afternoon the netters travel to Philadelphia to face La Salle. American University will be entertained here at Evergreen tomorrow afternoon.

The Loyolans will then visit Catholic University for a match that may well decide the Mason-Dixon playoff. In their initial tussle, Catholic U. earned a 5-to-4 verdict over the Green and Grey.

Georgetown University is the Hounds' other opponent.

Lacrosse

The lacrosse team has two more games remaining on the schedule. Swarthmore will be played away tomorrow afternoon, and Baltimore University will afford the opposition for the crossmen in their season finale here at Evergreen.

The Bees have come a long way since entering the stick wars last year and are featuring a strong attack, which is paced by Bobby Hart and Charles Beasley. As of this writing, the Bees are undefeated, having won all their games by comfortable margins.

B-Squad Tennis

The oncoming close of the current tennis season finds the Loyola B-squad possessing a record of one win, four losses and a tie.

Composed principally of freshmen and sophomores, the B-team is gaining valuable experience in playing the local high school teams. Unfortunately none of the other Mason-Dixon Conference schools have Jayvee teams save Hopkins.

The junior netters have suffered defeats at the hands of Baltimore City College, Loyola High and Hopkins. They have split even in a pair of matches with Baltimore Polytechnic, and a tie has been registered with Mount Saint Joseph. Return matches have been slated with Hopkins, Loyola High and Saint Joe.

Holding down the number one spot is sophomore Talbot Cockey. Jack Schanberger is the number two man, and these two players combine to form the number one doubles team.

Bill Monaghan, Martin O'Connor, Tom McCormick and Neal Hickey alternate for the remaining positions.

Hounds Top Jays

The Green and Grey had an easy time of it on April 25 when they played a host Hopkins club. Carl Eekles baffled the Homewood nine with his pitching and was given strong hitting support by his teammates as they blasted out eight runs to the Blue Jays one.

The blingers then journeyed to Emmitsburg on April 27 and topped their sixth straight M-D win to the tune of an 8-to-2 score. Dan Donohue took the pitching reins and although allowing nine hits, he was tight with them in the pinehes.

Win Number Seven
With win number seven against the Towson State Teachers on May 4, the Evergreen nine preserved their unblemished record. The Hounds white-washed the Teachers, 11 to 0, giving three Towson pitchers a busy afternoon.

Again Donohue handled the pitching chores, hurling the visitors with but five hits. A barrage of Loyola softies included a home run by Zealis, a triple by Bill Tucker and a double by Frank Linnardi. Donohue fanned thirteen and walked two as he coasted to the shutout victory.

Annual Plans A Supplement

The Evergreen Annual has gone to press and will be distributed to the student body during examination week. The one hundred page book will cover all activities up until March, together with the senior pictures and write-ups.

Plans for a Spring supplement have been made, but due to a lack of funds it is not definite whether or not it will be published. These plans include a complete coverage of all spring sports and activities not included in the regular book.

Styled On Magazine

The Supplement would be a magazine style edition which would fit into the main edition. If the plan succeeds the supplement will come out sometime in July, before the graduation.

A two column layout will be used in the Supplement in order to cut down the printing price. This will be different than the regular edition which is being printed with a three column layout, styled after Fortune magazine. Thus far there have been forty-four contributors to the book.

Free To Students

The book will be available in the bookstore for the student body. In order to obtain the book, registration cards will be needed, there will be no charge.

Ferdinand Leimkuhler is the editor of the Annual, Larry Mohr is business manager. The Thomsen, Ells and Hutton Co. are doing the printing.

Meet the Students

Coyne Combines Studies With Athletics

A typical example of the Jesuit objective, "the whole man," is John Joseph Coyne, a B.S.J. Physics major who will complete his senior year in July.

At present Coyne is treasurer of the Student Council, president of the Math Club and an active member of the Physics Club. In addition to this he was named to Alpha Sigma Nu, national Jesuit honor fraternity, and has yet to miss the quarterly "Dean's List of Distinguished Students."

As if all his other activities were not enough to keep him busy, Coyne decided to do something in the field of athletics. Although he had no previous track experience in high school, he now runs the half-mile, the mile, and the mile relay. So far this year he has been entered in two and sometimes three events in every meet. His team mates affirm that Coyne really puts his heart and soul into his work. As he himself says, "Engaging in some sports activity is a part of your education and goes hand in hand with being a good student."

J. Joseph Coyne

Coyne says that one of his favorite pastimes is helping his fellow classmen with their math and physics problems.

Sigma Xi Accepts Loyola Instructors

Messrs. Donald M. Slager and Harry A. Durney, Jr., Instructors at Loyola, have both been recently accepted as full members in Sigma Xi, the National Research Honor Society.

Both men are candidates for Ph.D.'s at Hopkins.

Major Nathan Adams, Auburn '40 Personnel Manager, U.S. Air Force

A topscholar and ROTC Honor Graduate, Cadet Lt. Col. Nathan Adams enjoyed his final military ball in 1940, soon left for Fort Sill's Field Artillery School.

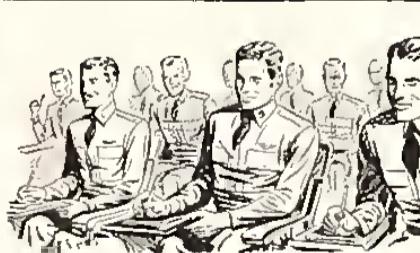

Following a three month course, Lt. Adams decided the Air Force was the place for him. He applied for pilot training, was accepted, proceeded to Maxwell Field.

He won his wings and reported to the 36th Fighter Group in Puerto Rico. The group soon returned to the States, giving Adams a chance to marry his college sweetheart.

Within months Adams was overseas, flying "rhubarbs" (missions against enemy transport). He flew 63 P-47 missions within seven months, returned to the States late in 1944 for rest and recuperation.

V-J Day came, and Adams decided to make the service a career. He chose personnel work as his career field, was assigned for training to the Adjutant General's School at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia.

Now a regular Air Force Major, he heads a 32-man section at Bolling Air Force Base. He advises his Commanding Officer on selection, assignment and promotion of all officers and airmen in the command.

If you are single, between the ages of 20 and 26½, with at least two years of college, consider the many career opportunities as a pilot or navigator in the U.S. Air Force. Procurement Teams are visiting many colleges and universities to explain these career opportunities. Watch for them. You may also get full details at your nearest Air Force Base or U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force Recruiting Station, or by writing to the Chief of Staff, U.S. Air Force, Attn: Aviation Cadet Branch, Washington 25, D.
